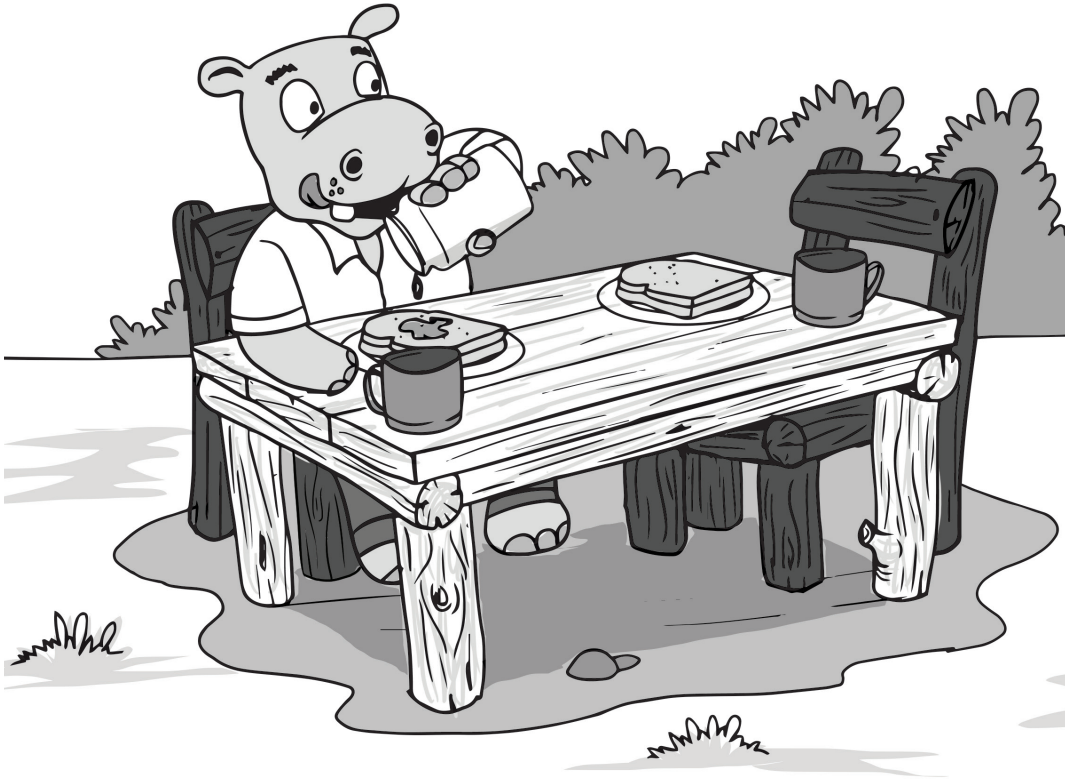
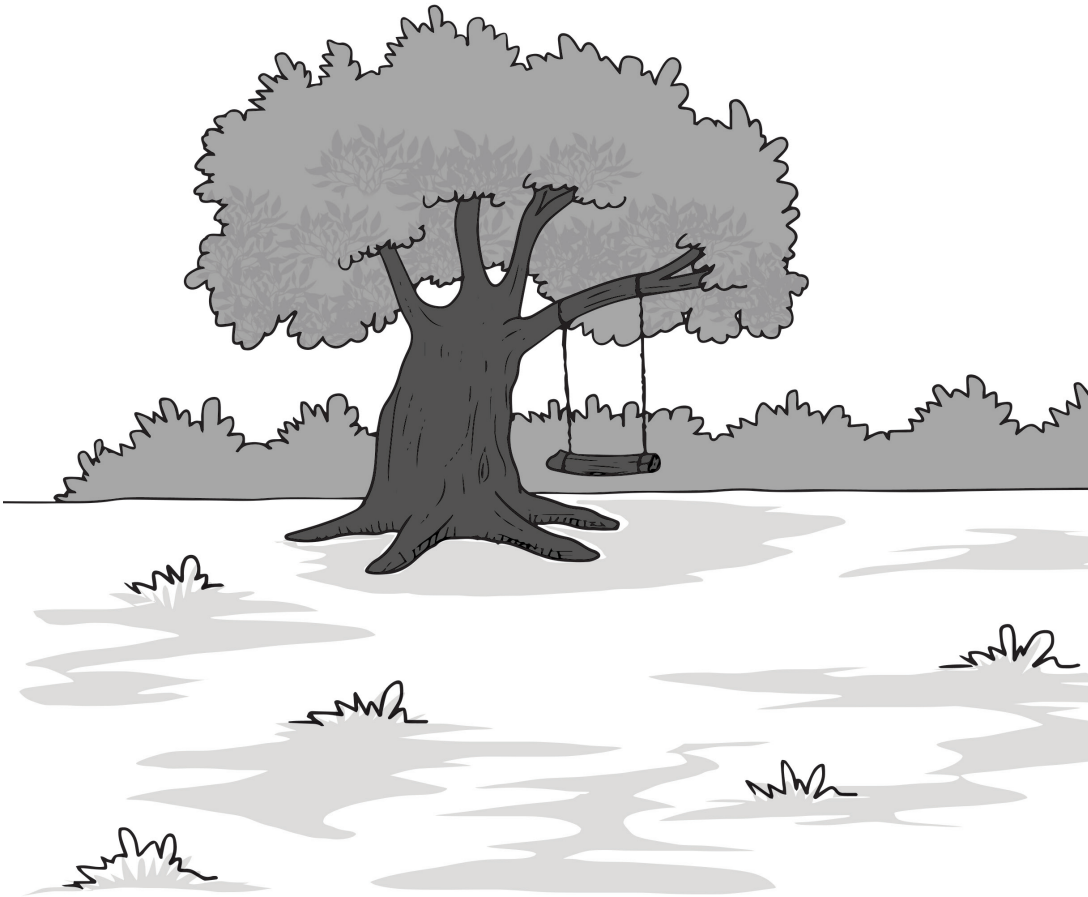
Goat and Hippo Series

I like honey, Goat.

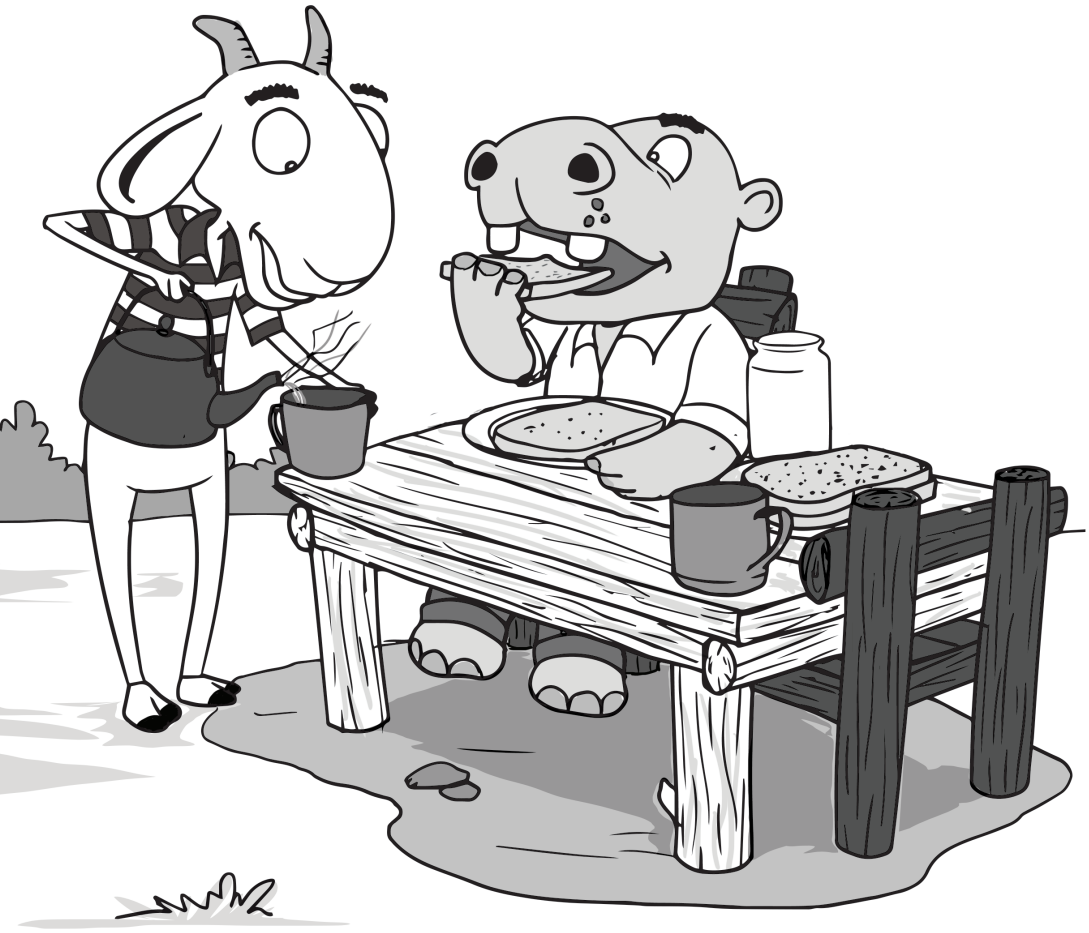


I like honey too, Hippo.



Who makes the honey, Goat?

I don't know, Hippo.



Let’s go, Hippo.

Let’s find out who makes the honey.

Grasshopper! Grasshopper!
Do you make the honey?

No, I don't make the honey.
I cut the grass and eat it.

Ant! Ant!
Do you make the honey?

No, I don’t make the honey.
I carry the stones to the anthill.

Beetle! Beetle!
Do you make the honey?

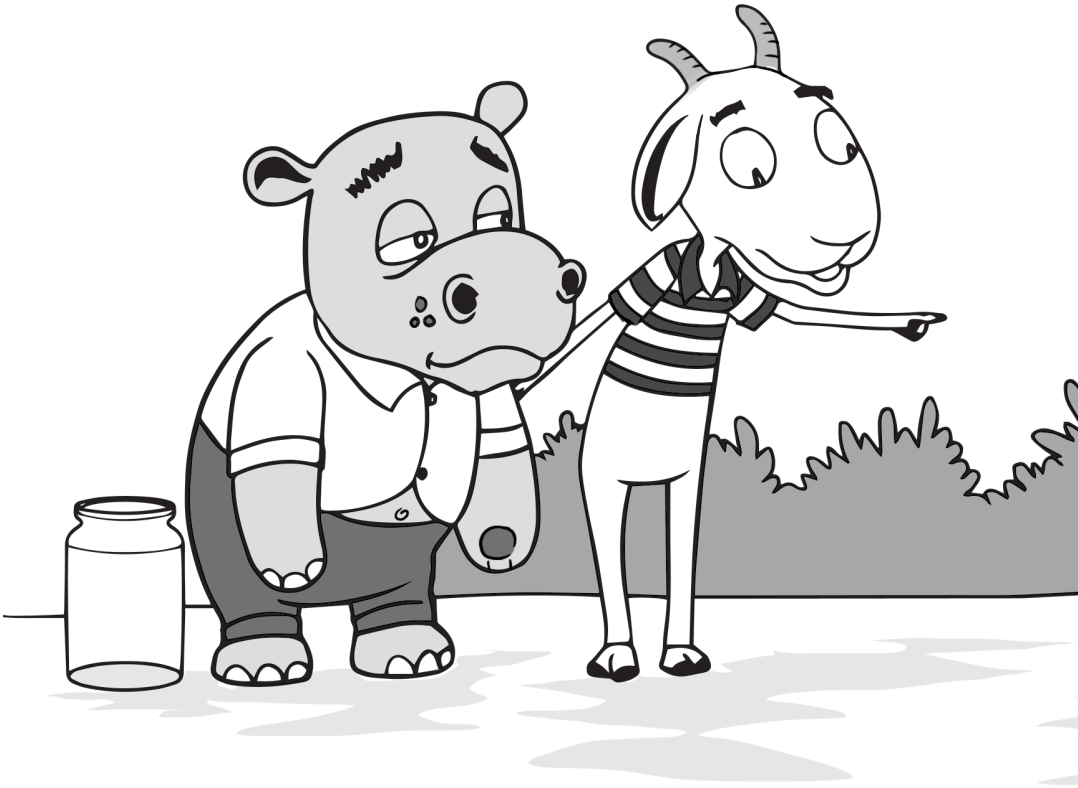
No, I don't make the honey.
I roll dung balls for my eggs.

Fly! Fly!
Do you make the honey?

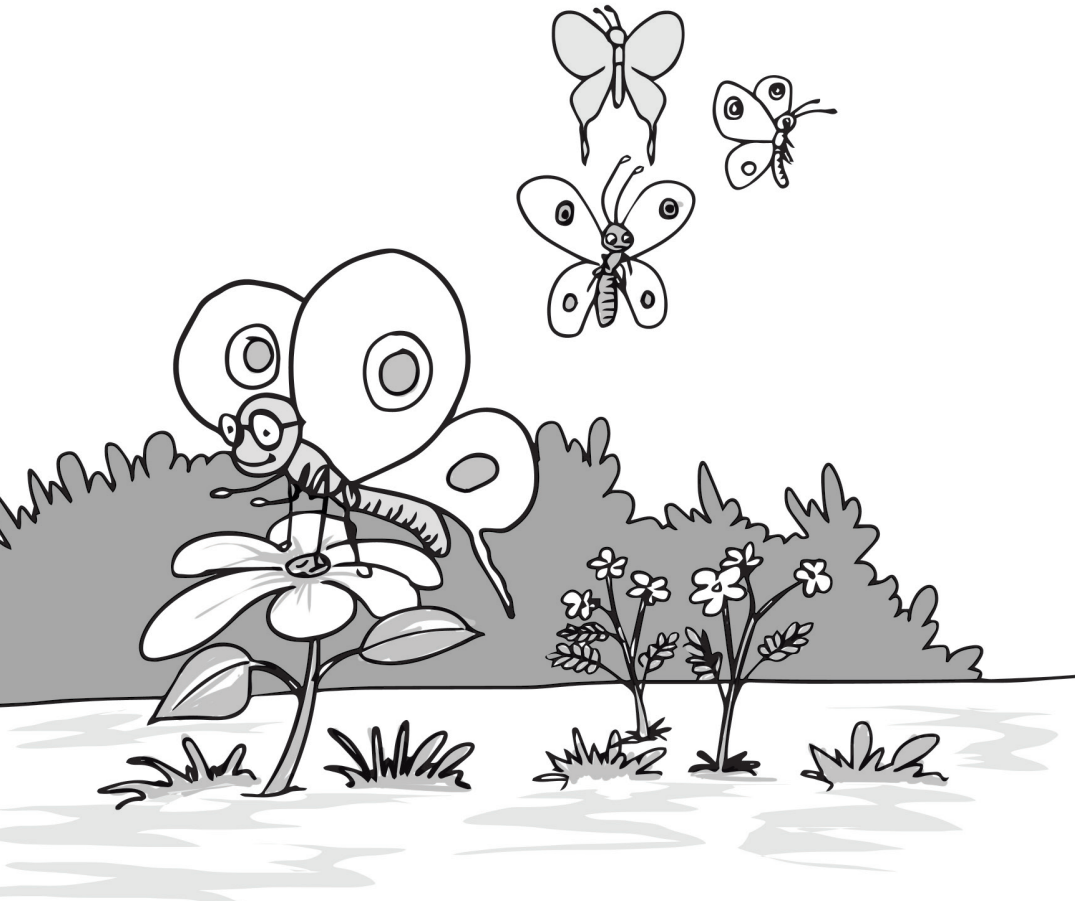
No, I don't make the honey.
I clean the waste.

I give up, Goat!

We will never find who makes the honey!



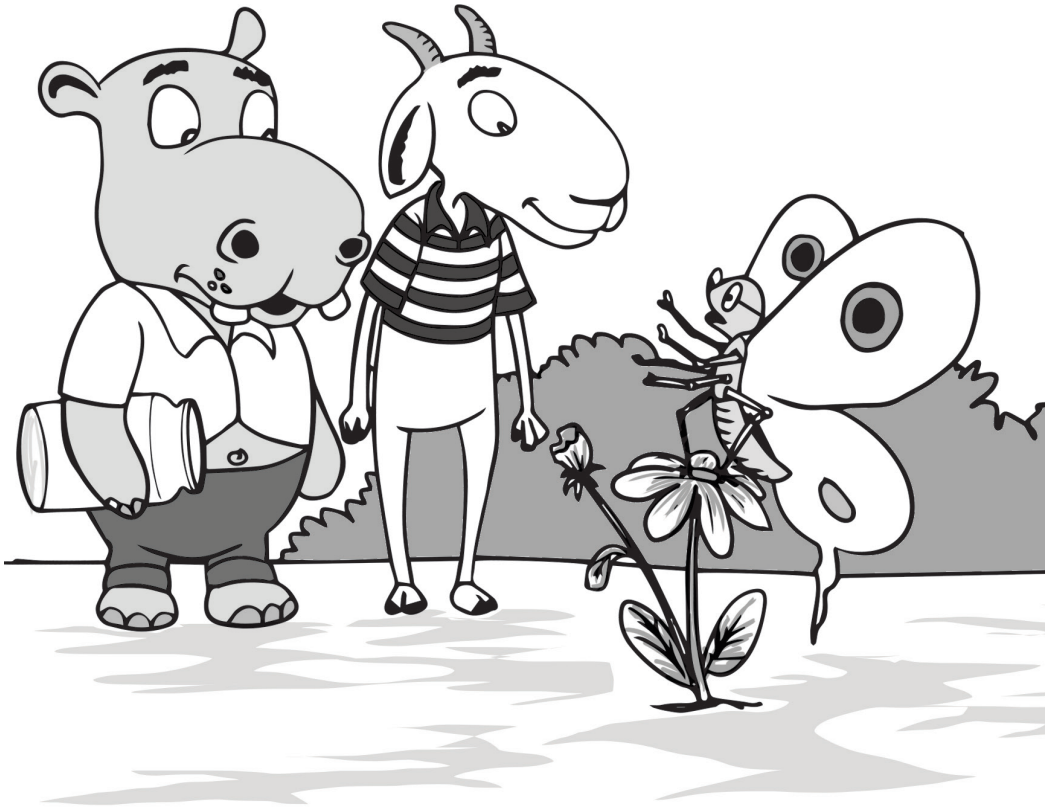
Let's just ask Butterfly.
See her on that flower?

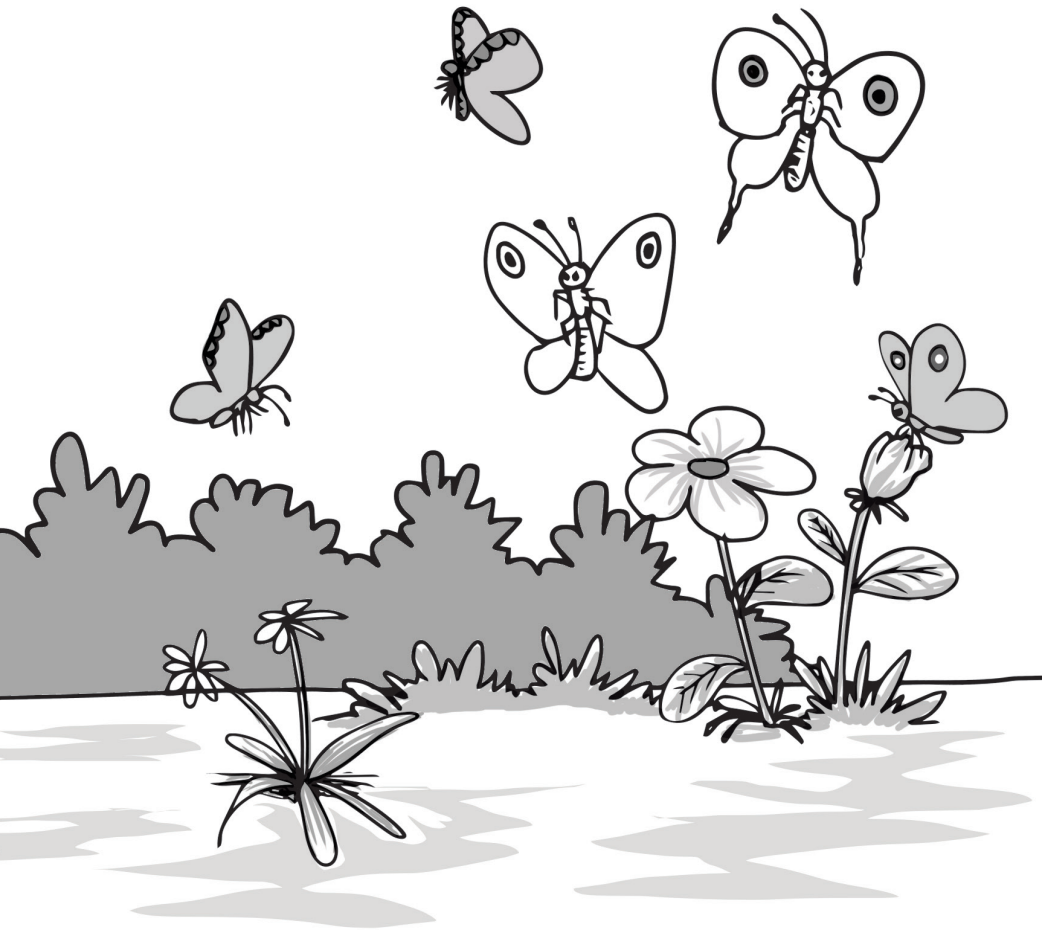


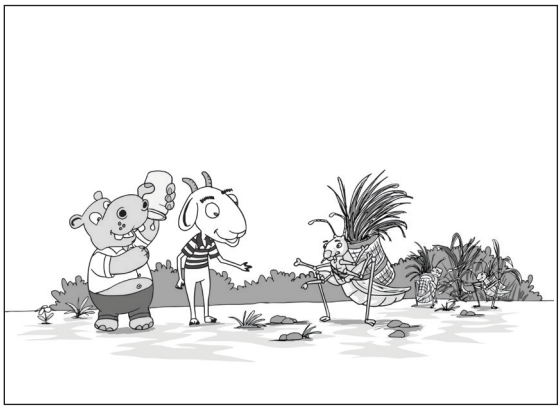
Butterfly! Butterfly!
Do you make the honey?

No, I don't make the honey.
I collect nectar from flowers.

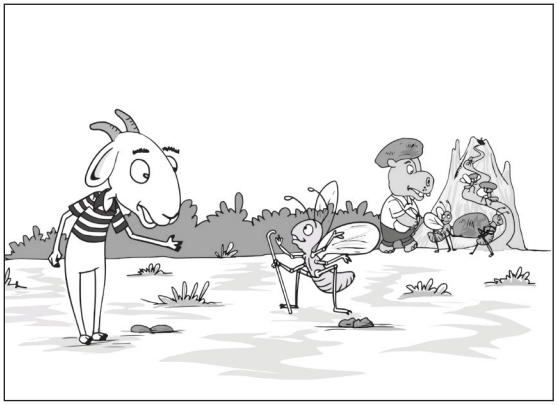
Tell me, Hippo.
Tell me, Goat.
Who did you ask for honey?



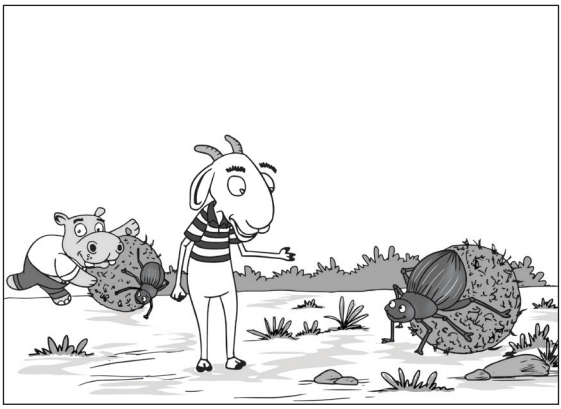




We asked the Grasshopper,
but he cuts the grass.



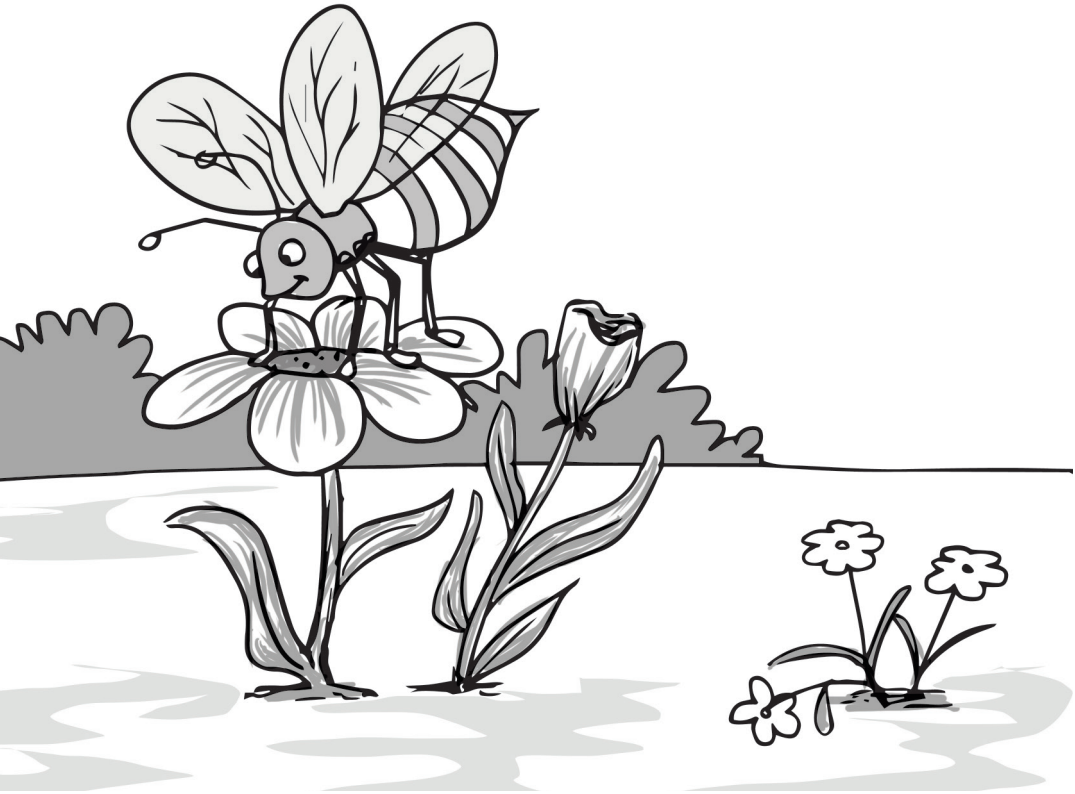
We asked the Ant,
but she carries the stones.



We asked the Beetle,
but he rolls the dung.

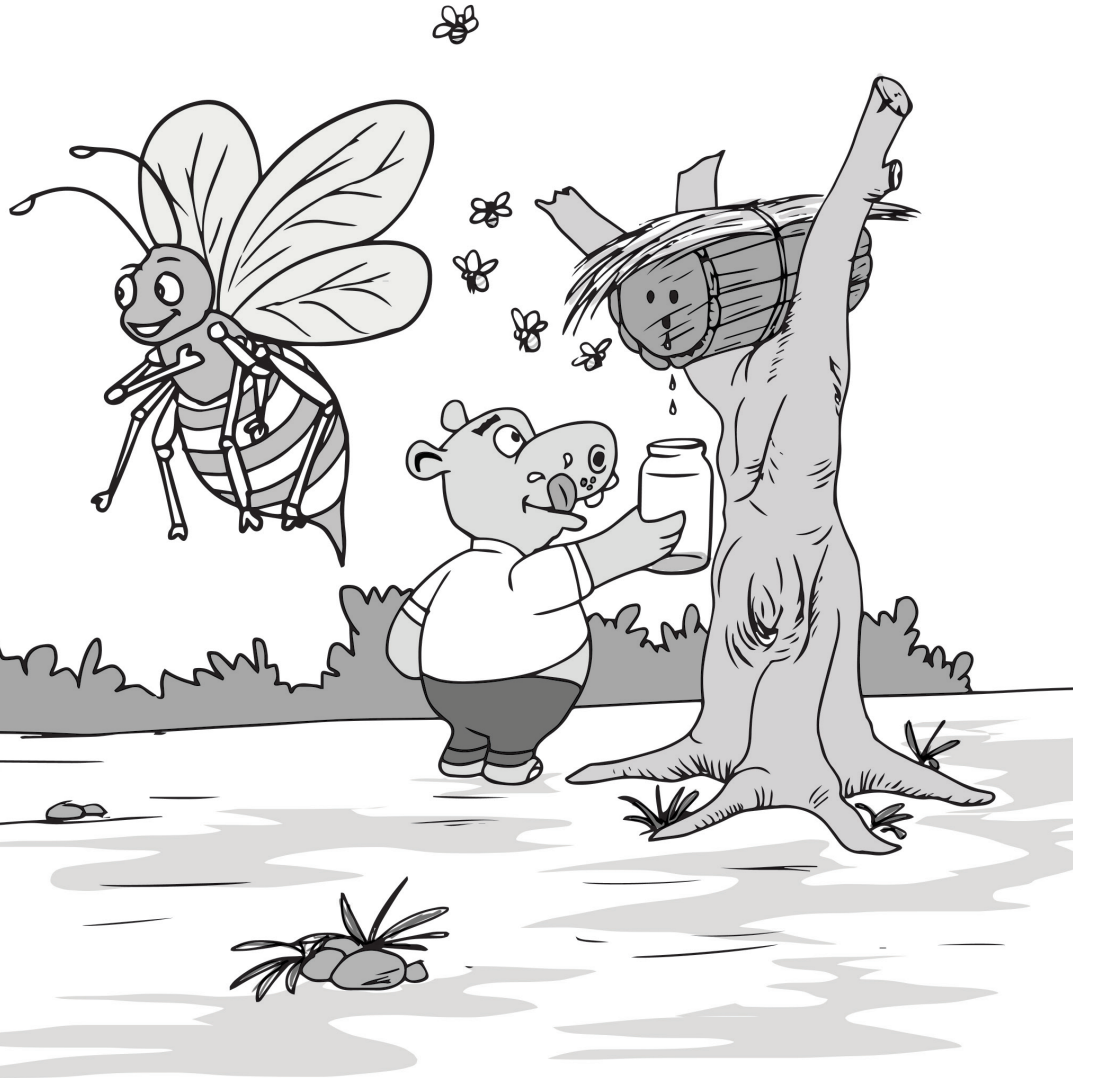
We asked the Fly,
but he cleans the waste.

Go ask my friend, the Bee.
See her on that flower?



Bee! Bee!
Do you make the honey?

Yes! I make the honey.
I make the honey for you to enjoy.



Thank you, Bee!
We love to eat your honey!
